CINÉMA DE DEMAIN

*Supporting creativity and a love
of film*

Cinéma de Demain encompasses all the many different initiatives the Festival de Cannes has sparked over the years to support film-making and foster a love of cinema around the world. In a continuation of its long-standing tradition of revealing fresh talent and supporting the film industry, the Festival is ploughing its expertise underpinned by four core priorities: Revealing, Supporting, Sharing, Networking.

*Un soutien
à la création
à la cinéphilie*

Cinéma de Demain réunit les différentes initiatives mises en œuvre par le Festival de Cannes au fil du temps pour accompagner la création et la cinéphilie à travers le monde. Dans la continuité de sa vocation première de découverte de nouveaux talents et de soutien de l'industrie cinématographique, l'institution investit son savoir-faire à travers quatre principales missions : Révéler, Accompagner, Transmettre, Connecter.

🕒 SUNDAY 17 MAY | DIMANCHE 17 MAI – 16:00
 📍 PALAIS STAGE

Two producers are joined by distributors they have worked with multiple times, to share insights on their collaborations. From the first contact to festival selections and sales, both duos reveal the ups and downs of releasing their short films. The opportunity as well to know more about the producer/distributor relationship. Deux productrices et leurs distributeurs partagent les coulisses de leurs longues collaborations. Du premier contact aux sélections en festivals jusqu'aux ventes, les deux duos révèlent les hauts et les bas de la diffusion de leurs courts métrages. L'occasion également d'en apprendre plus sur la relation qui lie producteur et distributeur.

Film Curating vs Programming

With | Avec Anne Gaschütz, Lyse Nsengiyumva, Émilie Poirier, Emily Wright
 Moderated by | Modération par Céline Roustan

🕒 MONDAY 18 MAY | LUNDI 18 MAI – 16:00
 📍 PALAIS STAGE

Short films rarely screen alone, often shown with other work, they are mainly exhibited within a curation or a program. However, curating and programming are two distinct exercises that can be mistakenly conflated. Curators and programmers discuss here how short film blocks are created through both a programming and curation lens.

Les courts métrages sont rarement projetés seuls, souvent présentés dans le cadre d'une curation ou d'une programmation. Cependant, ce sont deux activités distinctes parfois confondues à tort. Quatre curatrices et programmatrices discutent ici de la manière dont les blocs de courts métrages sont constitués, tant du point de vue de la programmation que de celui de la curation.

Brainchild of Jing Haase, who hosts the session, this initiative exposes six filmmakers to the raw and honest feedback of decision-makers specialized in short film sales. These industry pros only watch the first three minutes of each film before giving their live reactions. An unmissable opportunity to learn more about what the buyers are looking for.

Créée par Jing Haase, qui anime la session, cette initiative expose six cinéastes aux réactions sans détour de decision-makers spécialisés dans la vente de courts métrages. There are many well-known project and talent development opportunities for the feature film industry, those pertaining to short films are not as numerous but do exist; which is why representatives from different organizations take center stage to present their various initiatives for short filmmakers.

Les opportunités de développement de projets et de talents dans l'industrie du long métrage sont nombreuses et bien connues, celles concernant le court métrage ne sont pas tant exposées mais existent bel et bien.

Les représentants de plusieurs de ces initiatives viennent présenter les opportunités disponibles dans l'industrie du court.

DIRECTORS' TALK

Hasan Hadi & Rakan Mayasi

Moderated by | Modération par Delphine Jeanneret

🕒 TUESDAY 19 MAY | MARDI 19 MAI – 14:00

📍 PALAIS STAGE

Fresh off his Caméra d'Or win at the 2025 Festival de Cannes with his feature debut THE PRESIDENT'S CAKE, writer/director Hasan Hadi is back in Cannes to discuss his journey as a filmmaker from growing up in Iraq, studying then teaching in New York until the premiere of his first feature at the Directors' Fortnight. Joining him on stage is Palestinian writer/director Rakan Mayasi who is debuting his first feature at the 2026 Festival de Cannes in Un Certain Regard. On the eve of the premiere, he will also conjointly share his experiences, and how the robust filmography he built in shorts led him to this stage in his career.

Un an après avoir remporté la Caméra d'Or au Festival de Cannes 2025 avec son premier long métrage THE PRESIDENT'S CAKE, Hasan Hadi est de retour pour parler de son parcours de cinéaste, depuis son enfance en Irak, ses études et son poste d'enseignant à New York, jusqu'à la sélection de son premier long métrage à la Quinzaine des Cinéastes. Le réalisateur et scénariste palestinien Rakan Mayasi, qui présente son premier long métrage au Festival de Cannes 2026 à Un Certain Regard, l'accompagne sur scène. À la veille de la première, il partagera également ses expériences et expliquera comment la solide filmographie qu'il s'est construite à travers ses courts métrages l'a mené à cette étape de sa carrière.

HASAN HADI
Director, Screenwriter

Hasan Hadi is an Iraqi writer/director. He grew up in southern Iraq, during wartime, and over the years worked in journalism, production, and as an adjunct professor at NYU's Graduate Film Program. He received the Gotham-Marcie Bloom Fellowship, the Black Family Production Prize and the Sloan Foundation Production Award.

He is 2026 DGA nominee, 2022 Sundance Lab Fellow and the recipient of the Sundance/NHK Award, SFFILM Rainin Grant, and Doha Film Institute Grant. His feature debut, THE PRESIDENT'S CAKE, is the first Iraqi film to be Oscar shortlisted and win at Cannes, both Camera d'Or and the Directors' Fortnight People's Choice Award.

Hasan Hadi est un scénariste et réalisateur irakien.

Il a grandi dans le sud de l'Irak, en période de guerre, et a travaillé dans le journalisme, la production, ainsi qu'en tant que professeur associé au Graduate Film Program de NYU. Il a reçu la bourse Gotham-Marcie Bloom Fellowship, le Black Family Production Prize ainsi que le Sloan Foundation Production Award. Il a été nommé aux DGA Awards 2026, a participé au Sundance Lab en 2022 et a reçu le Sundance/NHK Award, la bourse SFFILM Rainin Grant ainsi que la Doha Film Institute Grant. Son premier long métrage, THE PRESIDENT'S CAKE, est le premier film irakien à avoir été shortlisté aux Oscars et à avoir remporté un prix à Cannes, à la fois la Caméra d'Or et le Choix du Public de la Quinzaine des Cinéastes.

DELPHINE JEANNERET

RAKAN MAYASI
Director, Screenwriter

Rakan Mayasi is an independent filmmaker from Palestine, born in Germany and currently based in Brussels. He studied Cinema and Psychology in Lebanon and then received film training with Abbas Kiarostami in South Korea at the Asian Film Academy. He has an MA in Filmmaking from LUCA School of Arts in Belgium. He has made several short films: ROUBAMA, which premiered at Locarno Film Festival in 2012; BONBONÉ which premiered at TIFF in 2017 and is the recipient of 35 Best Short Awards; TRUMPETS IN THE SKY which won honorable mention for Best International Short Film at TIFF 2021; and THE KEY which premiered at SXSW. Rakan just wrapped his first feature film YESTERDAY THE EYE DIDN'T SLEEP. Shot entirely with non-professional actors and without a script, the film makes its debut at the 2026 Festival de Cannes, in Un Certain Regard.

Rakan Mayasi est un cinéaste indépendant palestinien, né en Allemagne et actuellement basé à Bruxelles. Il a étudié le cinéma et la psychologie au Liban, puis a suivi une formation cinématographique avec Abbas Kiarostami en Corée du Sud à l'Asian Film Academy. Il est titulaire d'un master en réalisation cinématographique de la LUCA School of Arts en Belgique. Il a réalisé plusieurs courts métrages : ROUBAMA, présenté à Locarno Film Festival en 2012 ; BONBONÉ, présenté à TIFF en 2017 et récompensé par 35 prix du meilleur court métrage ; TRUMPETS IN THE SKY, qui a reçu une mention honorable du meilleur court métrage international à TIFF 2021 ; ainsi que THE KEY, présenté à SXSW en 2023. Rakan vient d'achever son premier long métrage, YESTERDAY THE EYE DIDN'T SLEEP. Tourné entièrement avec des acteurs non professionnels et sans scénario, le film fait sa première au Festival de Cannes 2026, dans la section Un Certain Regard.

🤝 IN COLLABORATION WITH INSTITUTIONS | EN COLLABORATION AVEC LES INSTITUTIONS

At the core of its mission every year, the SFC | Rendez-vous Industry aims to provide personalized guidance to its attending filmmakers. This is why we collaborate with many institutions to design tailor-made sessions led by industry experts & consultants.

These private sessions, dedicated to the filmmakers brought in Cannes by the collaborating Institutions, are a great opportunity to maximize the experience of the participants within the SFC | Rendez-vous Industry. Filmmakers get valuable mentoring on industry or creative topics specifically chosen for them, gain knowledge and interact in a more intimate setup with key decision-makers.

We are proud to highlight this year's range of subjects approached, as well as the experts who gave their time and the institutions who trusted us.

Au cœur de ses missions chaque année, le SFC | Rendez-vous Industry dédie des sessions personnalisées à des cinéastes présents. Nous collaborons avec de nombreuses institutions pour concevoir des sessions sur mesure menées par des experts et consultants.

Ces ateliers privés, dédiés aux réalisateurs et réalisatrices des films présents au sein des collections de ces Institutions, sont une opportunité unique de valoriser l'expérience des participants au sein du SFC | Rendez-vous Industry. Ils bénéficient d'un mentorat précieux sur des sujets liés à la création ou à l'industrie spécifiquement conçus pour eux, acquièrent des connaissances et interagissent dans un cadre plus intime avec des professionnels majeurs.

Nous sommes fiers de mettre en avant l'ensemble des sujets abordés cette année, ainsi que les experts qui ont donné de leur temps et les institutions qui nous ont fait confiance.

FOCUS COPRO'

Private event dedicated to the project holders & industry professionals invited
Événement privé dédié aux porteurs de projet & aux professionnels invités

The Focus COPRO' has been launched in 2018 as a way to create synergies between major decision-makers participating in the market and more experienced filmmakers part of the Festival de Cannes or scouted in the context of the SFC | Rendez-vous Industry. This program highlights young talents on an international scale and supports the filmmakers in bridging the gap from short to feature thanks to customized sessions and the meeting of key industry representatives offering them the opportunity to pursue the development of their first feature film project.

Depuis 2018, le Focus COPRO' crée des ponts entre les decision-makers majeurs participant au marché et les porteurs de projets les plus expérimentés prenant part au Festival de Cannes ou repéré dans le cadre du SFC | Rendez-vous Industry. Le programme valorise des cinéastes talentueux, les accompagne grâce à des sessions sur mesure et leur permet de rencontrer des représentants clés de l'industrie, afin de booster le développement de leurs projets de premier long métrage.

Budget: 900,000 €

« The film is a satirical portrait of the average Chinese one-child family. Through a series of absurd events, we watch them from a distance, like creatures in their habitat, their lives shifting from unremarkable to outright banal as they slip in and out of their inherited roles.

Le film dresse un portrait satirique d'une famille chinoise typique sous la politique de l'enfant unique. À travers une série d'événements absurdes, nous les observons de loin, comme des créatures dans leur habitat naturel, leur vie passant de l'ordinaire à la banalité pure et simple alors qu'ils endossent et abandonnent tour à tour les rôles qui leur ont été légués. »

SYNOPSIS

College dropout Xiaoliu returns home from abroad after suddenly losing the ability to speak. But nothing is as it was. Her father is laid off, her mother stages the illusion of unity, and her grandmother finds more comfort in a hired caretaker than her own family. The sun grows dimmer each day... and something unseen is closing in.

Xiaoliu a abandonné ses études et rentre chez elle après avoir soudainement perdu l'usage de la parole. Mais rien n'est plus comme avant. Son père a été licencié, sa mère feint l'unité familiale, et sa grand-mère trouve davantage de réconfort auprès d'une aide à domicile qu'au sein de sa propre famille. Le soleil perd chaque jour un peu plus de son éclat... et quelque chose d'invisible se rapproche.

« Through a satirical and allegorical lens, I want to explore a world where people remain chained to antiquated dogmas while desperately trying to invent new forms of faith. The film is a composite portrait of a younger generation struggling to find its footing in a hyper-consumerist, superficial society. Simultaneously, it holds a mirror to grim realities in my country.

À travers un regard satirique et allégorique, je souhaite explorer un monde où les gens restent enchaînés à des dogmes dépassés tout en s'efforçant désespérément d'inventer de nouvelles formes de croyance. Ce film brosse le portrait complexe d'une jeune génération qui peine à trouver ses repères dans une société d'hyperconsommation superficielle. Il agit aussi comme un miroir face aux sombres réalités de mon pays. »

After evading a murder charge because the police refuse to believe his client was turned into a snail, a hustler turns the absurd concept into a cult-like service, scamming lonely seniors out of their life savings under the guise of spiritual transformation.

Après avoir échappé à une accusation de meurtre parce que la police refuse de croire que son client s'est transformé en escargot, un escroc transforme ce concept absurde en une sorte de culte, dépouillant des personnes âgées isolées de toutes leurs économies en leur promettant une transformation spirituelle.

« Inspired by the life of my best friend, the film immerses us in a pivotal summer in the life of a teenager who has grown up in a hostile, male-dominated environment. Haunted by the absent and ambiguous figure of her father, his influence shapes the way she navigates both desire and guilt.

Inspiré de la vie de ma meilleure amie, le film nous plonge dans un été décisif de la vie d'une adolescente qui a grandi dans un environnement hostile et dominé par les hommes. Hantée par la figure absente et ambiguë de son père, son influence façonne la manière dont elle gère à la fois ses désirs et sa culpabilité. »

The teenage daughter of a well-known painter discovers her father's unsettling creative obsessions as she develops an intense, deep relationship with a foreign exchange student who has come to stay at their home.

La fille adolescente d'un peintre célèbre découvre les obsessions artistiques troublantes de son père, alors qu'elle noue une relation intense et profonde avec une étudiante étrangère venue séjourner chez eux.

« We follow Pacifique's intimate yet tremendous quest to reclaim a fractured past shaped by colonial violence. We explore how absence, memory, and inheritance define identity, belonging, and transmission across generations. Pacifique confronts erased histories to understand what he can pass on, transforming a personal search into a collective reckoning with truth, exile, and return.

Nous suivons le parcours intime et grandiose de Pacifique, cherchant à se réappropriier un passé brisé, marqué par la violence coloniale. Nous explorons comment l'absence, la mémoire et l'héritage définissent l'identité, le sentiment d'appartenance et la transmission intergénérationnelle. Pacifique se confronte à des histoires effacées pour comprendre ce qu'il peut transmettre, transformant une quête personnelle en une réflexion collective sur la vérité, l'exil et le retour. »

Brussels, 1994. At a rave, Pacifique is overwhelmed by a traumatic flashback that begins to reveal a troubled past. As fragments of buried memories resurface in his dreams, he sets out for Rwanda – a place where history has tried to erase him. Embarking on a deeply personal journey, Pacifique confronts ghosts, silences, and betrayals, and ultimately rediscovers his identity.

Bruxelles, 1994. Lors d'une rave, Pacifique est bouleversé par la vision d'un flashback qui commence à dévoiler un passé tourmenté. Alors que des fragments de souvenirs enfouis refont surface dans ses rêves, il part pour le Rwanda – un endroit où l'histoire a tenté de l'effacer. Alors qu'il se lance dans un voyage profondément personnel, Pacifique affronte ses fantômes, ses silences et ses trahisons, pour finalement redécouvrir son identité.

« I want to film this moment just before departure, already steeped in the nostalgia of what we are losing. The desert replaces the crowd, silence shapes bodies. A youth wandering, displaced by territory, desire, loss. Follow the dromedaries, let the film drift toward the invisible of exile.

Je veux filmer cet instant juste avant le départ, déjà imprégné de la nostalgie de ce que nous perdons.

Le désert remplace la foule, le silence façonne les corps. Une jeunesse errante, déracinée par le territoire, le désir et la perte. Suivons les dromadaires, laissons le film dériver vers l'invisible de l'exil. »

SYNOPSIS

Rayane and Ahmed, two 18-year-old Algerians, wander between an oil base and the desert. When dromedaries overrun the base, they follow them across the margins. For a few days, the film invites us to lose our way with them, share their silences and feel what is shifting. Between desert and edges, something changes. In heat, farewells slip in.

Rayane et Ahmed, deux Algériens de 18 ans, errent entre une base pétrolière et le désert. Lorsque des dromadaires envahissent la base, ils les suivent à travers les marges. Pendant quelques jours, le film nous invite à nous perdre avec eux, à partager leurs silences et à ressentir ce qui est en train de changer. Entre le désert et les marges, quelque chose mue. Dans la chaleur, les adieux s'insinuent.

« Within the universe of this Island, the story unfolds in a place that seems to have defeated death; or so its people believe. For as long as I can remember, my existential anxiety around the subject matter of death has been a constant shadow. This is why I created a playground where I could ask: if eternal life were possible, would it actually make life better? Or would it unravel everything we think we know about living?

Imprégnée de l'univers de cette île, l'histoire se déroule dans un lieu qui semble avoir défié la mort ; c'est du moins ce que croient ses habitants. D'autant que je me souviens, mon angoisse existentielle face à la question de la mort a toujours été omniprésente. C'est pourquoi j'ai créé un terrain de jeu pour me demander : si la vie éternelle était possible, rendrait-elle réellement la vie meilleure ? Ou bien remettrait-elle en cause tout ce que nous pensons savoir sur l'existence ? »

A surrogate mother joins the couple expecting her baby on a vacation. As a love triangle quietly takes shape, she is confronted with the emotional cost of surrogacy; and the realization that her job doesn't always end at birth.

Une mère porteuse se joint au couple qui attend son bébé pour des vacances. Alors qu'un triangle amoureux se dessine discrètement, elle est confrontée au coût émotionnel de la GPA et prend conscience que son rôle ne s'achève pas toujours à la naissance.

« Though this very personal story deals with political themes like migration and nationalism, it is also a tribute to the teen movies that I loved as a kid. I want this to be a comedy that is both entertaining and subversive – my anti-assimilation manifesto, but told like a pubescent joke.

Même si cette histoire très personnelle aborde des thèmes politiques tels que la migration et le nationalisme, c'est aussi un hommage aux 'teen movies' que j'adorais quand j'étais enfant. Je souhaite que ce soit une comédie à la fois divertissante et subversive – mon manifeste anti-assimilation, mais raconté comme une blague d'adolescent. »

Summer 2006, 13-year-old Siegfried – small for his age and the only Asian kid in his German school – tries to impress his much taller crush Charlotte by playing the class clown. But when Yuan, a shorter and even funnier Chinese-German boy, arrives and draws her attention, Siegfried suddenly sees his own insecurities reflected back at him. Their rivalry for laughs and approval forces Siegfried to confront the shame and jealousy he's long kept buried.

Été 2006 : Siegfried, 13 ans – petit pour son âge et seul élève asiatique de son école allemande – tente d'impressionner Charlotte, la fille dont il est amoureux et qui est bien plus grande que lui, en faisant le clown. Mais lorsque Yuan, un garçon sino-allemand encore plus petit et encore plus drôle, arrive et attire son attention, Siegfried voit soudain ses propres insécurités renvoyées à son visage. Leur rivalité pour faire rire et être appréciés oblige Siegfried à affronter la honte et la jalousie qu'il a longtemps enfouies.

Presentation

🕒 TUESDAY 19 MAY | MARDI 19 MAI – 10:00 > 11:30

📍 PALAIS STAGE

Followed by one-on-one meetings between the project-holders & the decision-makers.
Suivi par des rencontres en one-on-one entre les porteurs de projets et les professionnels.

The Focus WiP highlights short film projects in production or post-production to key decision-makers, such as international festival programmers, distributors, producers, institutions and buyers. This program provides guidance to short filmmakers through mentoring sessions and gives them the opportunity to promote their work-in-progress. Project-holders enjoy a privileged space to boost the completion process and enhance the launching of their upcoming short film.

Le Focus WiP valorise les projets de courts métrages en production ou post-production auprès des professionnels de l'industrie, tels que programmeurs de festivals internationaux, distributeurs, producteurs, institutions et acheteurs. Le programme permet aux cinéastes de bénéficier de sessions de mentorat et de promouvoir leur work-in-progress. Les porteurs de projet bénéficient d'un espace privilégié en vue de booster la finalisation et de faciliter la diffusion de leur court métrage à venir.

« The film blends documentary footage shot during the neighborhood's final days with a virtual world, which becomes a space for empowerment and a political statement, where former residents reclaim control over their territory and reinvent their neighborhood.

Le film mêle images documentaires tournées lors des derniers instants de la cité et monde virtuel, qui devient un espace d'émancipation et un geste politique, où les anciens habitants reprennent le pouvoir sur leur territoire et réinventent leur cité. »

SYNOPSIS

The Fauvettes housing project, in the Paris suburbs, is set to be demolished. Nabil, a teenager, dreams of becoming an architect. To fight against the demolition of the housing project where he grew up, he is rebuilding it in Minecraft with former residents, envisioning a fairer world that blends memory, resistance, and utopia.

La cité des Fauvettes, dans le 93, va être démolie. Nabil, un adolescent, rêve de devenir architecte. Pour lutter contre l'effacement de la cité où il a grandi, il la reconstruit dans Minecraft avec d'anciens habitants, imaginant un monde plus juste, entre mémoire, résistance et utopie.

« When my mother fought for her life, words failed me – so I filmed her on Super8. The camera became both shield and bridge. Moving between English and Spanish, the film sits with unanswerable questions: what remains, what is lost. Not an explanation of loss, but a way of staying within it.

Alors que ma mère luttait contre la maladie, les mots me manquaient – je l'ai filmée en Super 8. La caméra est devenue à la fois un bouclier et un pont. Oscillant entre la langue anglaise et espagnole, le film s'attarde sur des questions sans réponse : ce qui reste, ce qui est perdu. Ce n'est pas une manière d'expliquer la perte, mais une façon de vivre avec. »

« We follow a male ghost, once a husband and father, wandering between what was and what remains. Through soundscapes and frames where greenery meets cement, life meets death, and the old year meets the new, I bring my father home the only way I know how: through film.

Nous suivons le fantôme d'un homme, autrefois mari et père, errant entre ce qui a existé et ce qui reste.

À travers des paysages sonores et des images où se côtoient la végétation et le béton, la vie et la mort, l'ancienne et la nouvelle année, je ramène mon père à la maison de la seule manière que je connaisse : par le cinéma. »

SYNOPSIS

On a New Years' Eve, a cemetery demolition wakes the ghost of a man who longs to see his living wife and daughter, hoping to lay his bones back to rest.

Un soir de réveillon du nouvel an, la démolition d'un cimetière réveille le fantôme d'un homme qui cherche à revoir sa femme et sa fille encore en vie, dans l'espoir de trouver enfin le repos éternel.

« Told through a series of loosely connected, tender and absurd scenes, we follow people who are searching for closeness and acceptance. In a world that preaches self control, I wish to explore the sides we try to hide, such as feeling needy and pathetic. The stories overlap and reappear, gradually forming a larger portrait of collective longing.

Narré à travers une série de scènes tendres, absurdes et librement reliées entre elles, nous suivons des personnes en quête de connexion et d'acceptation. Dans un monde qui prône le contrôle de soi, je souhaite explorer ce que nous cherchons à dissimuler, comme le besoin d'attention ou le sentiment d'être pathétique. Les histoires se croisent et réapparaissent, formant progressivement un portrait plus large d'un désir collectif. »

« Young people can dream of freedom, but what happens when it's denied? In the Greek countryside, tradition, patriarchy, and myth press heavily, shaping a generation forced to mutate like skin between past and future. As desires persist and identities strain, how can we survive in a world not yet redefined? Les jeunes peuvent rêver de liberté, mais que se passe-t-il lorsqu'on la leur refuse ? Dans la campagne grecque, la tradition, le patriarcat et les mythes pèsent lourd et façonnent une génération contrainte de se métamorphoser, de changer de peau, entre passé et avenir. Alors que les désirs persistent et que les identités sont mises à rude épreuve, comment survivre dans un monde qui n'a pas encore été redéfini ? »

SYNOPSIS

18 year-old Yorgos is about to leave his village in Crete to complete his military service when he has his first sexual experience with a boy. In these final days of summer, under the scorching sun, Yorgos' dreams will give birth to his new skin, at any cost.

À 18 ans, Yorgos s'apprête à quitter son village en Crète pour effectuer son service militaire lorsqu'il vit sa première expérience sexuelle avec un garçon. En ces derniers jours d'été, sous un soleil de plomb, les rêves de Yorgos lui permettront de se réinventer, quoi qu'il en coûte.

Followed by one-on-one meetings between the project-holders & the decision-makers.
Suivi par des rencontres en one-on-one entre les porteurs de projets et les professionnels.

The Focus SCRIPT aims to forge bonds between recent graduates of Visual Arts & Film Schools and key decision-makers. Thanks to this program, we spot & highlight innovative young talents and support them in the first steps of their next short film. Filmmakers from the collaborating Film Schools get targeted feedbacks on their scripts at an early stage of work through individual consultancies on their first short film in development. The initiative also facilitates the meeting of potential partners, such as (co-)producers & distributors. Le Focus SCRIPT vise à renforcer les liens entre les récents diplômés d'Écoles de Cinéma et d'Arts Visuels et les professionnels majeurs de l'industrie. Grâce à cette initiative, nous repérons et mettons en valeur de jeunes cinéastes talentueux qui préparent leur premier court métrage. Les cinéastes diplômés des Écoles collaborant au programme reçoivent des retours concrets sur leur scénario au stade de développement grâce à des consultations individuelles. L'initiative facilite la rencontre de partenaires potentiels, tels que (co)producteurs et distributeurs.

« I wish to explore the ways in which gold, as a conductive element, connects the memory of distant territories where mythology, soil, and migration are intimately linked. This experimental documentary embodies the desire to deconstruct history and shape alternative times in cinematic language. Je souhaite explorer les façons dont l'or, en tant qu'élément conducteur, relie la mémoire de territoires lointains où mythologie, terre et migration sont intimement liées. Ce documentaire expérimental incarne le désir de déconstruire l'histoire et de façonner des temporalités alternatives à travers le langage cinématographique. »

A serpent lives in the depths of Guatavita Lagoon. This creature was fed by large quantities of gold, which led to the desperate search of El Dorado. Routes of transatlantic trade are retraced, weaving a polyphonic narrative between America, Africa and Europe around the figure of the serpent as a source of desire, fear, and power.

Un serpent vit dans les profondeurs de la lagune de Guatavita. Cette créature, nourrie d'énormes quantités d'or, déclencha la quête désespérée de l'Eldorado. Les routes du commerce transatlantique sont retracées, tissant un récit polyphonique entre l'Amérique, l'Afrique et l'Europe autour de la figure du serpent comme source de désir, de peur et de pouvoir.

« My story is shaped by the songs my father sang to us as children: "I am the one they point at, the one they call dangerous". The world of dog fighting reveals the human cost paid by a woman who holds her family together while confronting a society that labels and confines.

Mon histoire est façonnée par les chansons que mon père nous chantait lorsque nous étions enfants : "Je suis celui qu'on montre du doigt, celui qu'on dit dangereux". L'univers des combats de chiens révèle le prix humain payé par une femme qui maintient sa famille unie tout en affrontant une société qui étiquette et enferme. »

Kaina, 19 years old, reunites with her mother's family after six years apart. Upon her arrival, her uncle and cousins take her to the outskirts of the city to retrieve dogs bred for fights, a business run by her charismatic aunt Yasmine. Forced to follow them, Kaina begins to understand the burden carried by the woman whose strength she hopes one day to possess.

Kaina, 19 ans, retrouve sa famille maternelle après six années de séparation. À son arrivée, son oncle et ses cousins l'emmènent aux abords de la ville pour récupérer des chiens élevés à combattre, une activité dirigée par sa charismatique tante Yasmine. Forcée de les suivre, Kaina commence à comprendre le fardeau porté par la femme dont elle espère un jour posséder la force.

« Through the portrait of a young wildlife observer caught between forest and city, the documentary explores both a fragile relationship to the living world and the solitude of a young man adrift in urban life. The film adopts an immersive approach, blending direct cinema, infrared imagery and animation to capture the tension between nocturnal observation, memory, and the persistence of childhood fascination.

À travers le portrait d'un jeune observateur de la faune pris entre ville et forêt, le documentaire explore à la fois une relation fragile au monde vivant et la solitude d'un homme à la dérive dans un quotidien urbain. Le film adopte une approche immersive, mêlant cinéma direct, imagerie infrarouge et animation afin de saisir la tension entre l'observation nocturne, la mémoire et la persistance de l'émerveillement enfantin. »

At the time of the family home's move, Flavier returns to the place of his childhood, where he used to spend his nights in the forest, observing wild animals. Between Paris and the Swiss Jura, he goes through a turning point in his life, searching for what seems to be slipping away from him.

À l'heure du déménagement de la maison familiale, Flavier retourne sur le lieu de son enfance, où il passait autrefois ses nuits dans la forêt à observer les animaux sauvages. Entre Paris et le Jura suisse, il traverse un tournant de sa vie, cherchant ce qui semble lui échapper.

« This film explores the collision between aggression and tenderness. Two characters long for connection, yet struggle to express it. Their tension echoes in a world where nature clashes with modern construction. Revisiting past fears, I ask what it means to be human, seeing each other truthfully, and finding personal peace.

Ce film explore le conflit entre agressivité et tendresse. Deux personnages cherchent une connexion, mais peinent à l'exprimer. Leur tension résonne dans un monde où la nature se heurte aux constructions modernes. En revisitant les peurs du passé, je m'interroge sur ce que signifie être humain, voir qui l'on est réellement et trouver une forme de paix intérieure. »

In a developmental satellite town, Bani lives in isolation due to burnt wounds surrounding his face and body. The presence of Rangga, the new kid in town, opens the joyful and painful experience of friendship Bani longs for.

Dans une ville satellite en plein développement, Bani vit isolé à cause des brûlures qui marquent son visage et son corps. L'arrivée de Rangga, le nouvel enfant arrivé dans le quartier, ouvre pour lui l'expérience à la fois joyeuse et douloureuse d'une amitié qu'il désire.

« We unite ancestral Black music, contemporary transgender dance, and archival images to explore how colonial, racial, and gender violence echo through family and territory in one of Brazil's most colonial cities. In this musical drama, port machinery, wooden boats, vogue, African drums, and Brazilian funk create a chorus-like sonic body of memory, until the music finally breaks the silence.

Nous assemblons musique noire ancestrale, danse transgenre contemporaine et images d'archives pour explorer la façon dont les violences coloniales, raciales et de genre résonnent au sein de la famille et du territoire, dans l'une des villes les plus marquées par la colonisation au Brésil. Dans ce drame musical, les machines portuaires, les bateaux en bois, le voguing, les tambours africains et le funk brésilien composent à l'unisson une sonorité empreinte de souvenirs, amenant la musique à enfin briser le silence. »

Mar, a young trans woman raised on a Brazilian coast deeply marked by colonization, processes the death of her mother through memories, songs, and the support of her friends. Unable to attend the funeral, she transforms her pain into voice and movement, confronting her ancestry and the violences of the past in the port where she works.

Mar, une jeune femme trans élevée sur la côte brésilienne profondément marquée par la colonisation, appréhende le deuil de sa mère à travers les souvenirs, les chansons et le soutien de ses amis. Incapable d'assister aux funérailles, elle transforme sa douleur en chant et en mouvement, affrontant son héritage familial et les violences du passé dans le port où elle travaille.

« I want this film to inspire its viewers to look again at the images they have learned to fear or reject. To question where judgment comes from, and how easily it is mistaken for truth. I want the female body and female desire to be reclaimed as sites of power rather than punishment.

Je souhaite que ce film incite les spectateurs à regarder à nouveau les images qu'ils ont appris à craindre ou à rejeter. À s'interroger sur l'origine du jugement et sur la facilité avec laquelle on le confond avec la vérité. Je veux que le corps et le désir féminins soient réappropriés comme des espaces de pouvoir plutôt que de châtement. »

Jenny, a 32-year-old expat, lives and works in Brussels, together with her dog, Beast. She is struggling with her late-blossoming sexuality that expresses itself with a lustful attraction to her neighbour, Johannes. All the while, a secret life unfolds in her very own home.

Jenny, 32 ans, expatriée, vit et travaille à Bruxelles avec son chien, Beast. Elle se débat avec une sexualité tardivement révélée qui se manifeste par une attirance charnelle pour son voisin, Johannes. Pendant ce temps, une vie secrète se déroule au cœur même de son foyer.

Fiction | Comedy

Expected date of shooting:
12/2026

Production Country:
Spain, France

Dialogues (Language):
Catalan

Budget: 120,000 €
15,000 € (secured)

« I aim to explore how society glorifies ordinary gestures and discards them with equal speed. Through silence, repetition, and discomfort, I seek a dry comedy that exposes the fragility of social recognition and reclaims kindness as a quietly subversive form of resistance amid the absurdity of everyday life.

Je cherche à explorer la manière dont la société glorifie des gestes relevant de la banalité avant de les reléguer tout aussi rapidement dans l'oubli. À travers le silence, la répétition et la gêne, je souhaite créer une comédie grinçante qui révèle la fragilité de la reconnaissance sociale et réhabilite la gentillesse comme une forme de résistance discrètement subversive au cœur de l'absurdité du quotidien. »

Quiet, unambitious Eusebi gains unwanted fame when the town discovers his unusual talent: stopping doors from creaking.

Eusebi, un homme discret et sans ambition, acquiert malgré lui une célébrité inattendue lorsque les habitants de la ville découvrent son talent insolite : empêcher les portes de grincer.

THE LAB

THE LAB

🕒 EVERY DAY | TOUS LES JOURS

📍 RDV AREA, EDITING ROOM

With the ongoing desire to support more short film projects in the making, and not only those that have been completed, the SFC | Rendez-vous Industry has created The Lab.

Conceived as a working space rather than a showcase, The Lab welcomes projects at two crucial steps of the creative process – writing and editing – when films are still fragile, open, and full of possibilities. Benefiting from mentorship with internationally renowned experts, each project gets tailor-made sessions aiming to sharpen and enhance its filmmakers' own singular voices, and to find support at key stages prior to completion. Sheltered from the usual distractions, filmmakers are invited to work on what matters most: story, rhythm, and intention.

Afin de soutenir davantage de projets de courts métrages en cours de fabrication, au-delà de ceux qui ont déjà été achevés, le SFC | Rendez-vous Industry a créé The Lab.

Pensé comme un espace de travail plutôt qu'une vitrine, The Lab accueille des projets à deux étapes cruciales du processus créatif – l'écriture et le montage – lorsque les films sont encore fragiles, ouverts et pleins de possibilités.

Grâce à des sessions de mentorat avec des experts de renommée internationale, chaque projet bénéficie de sessions sur mesure visant à affiner et à renforcer la voix singulière de ses cinéastes, et à trouver un soutien à des étapes clés avant sa finalisation. Au sein d'un environnement privilégié, les porteurs de projet sont invités à se concentrer sur l'essentiel : la narration, le rythme et les intentions.
